Two burglars wearing masks entered the residence of Mrs. Olga Wehrend 1460 Cahoon avenue last night through a side window and after first cutting the telephone wires searched the house. They then departed. Mrs. Wehrend notified Rev. Godfrey Matthews, 1470 Cahoon avenue who telephoned the police. Police Sergeant George Wardlaw and Detective W. A. Jones responded to the call. Nothing was taken from the house and Mrs. Wehrend was unable to gave but a meager description to the officers busides stating that the burglars were masks.

The making home runs, but wasn't a very enlightening solution. There have been and still are a few players in baseball who really have the fielders ain't. Such an art is known as place hitting. Of course these players are not always able to turn the trick, but in a great many cases they are able to make the ball behave.

Willie Keeler was one of the greatest place hitters I have ever seen. I doubt if I will ever see a better one. KNEW HIS STYLE.

GEORGE WHITTED REALIZES AMBITION

George Whitted, former Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Brooklyn player, who was named manager of the Toledo American association team several days ago, says one of his ambitions has been realized and he will leave nothing undone to deliver the goods as a baseball pilot. Whitted has long since entertained an idea that he could successfully handle a ball club. In fact, it is said his dissatisfaction as a member of the Pittsburg Pirates came about when Geo. Gibson was made manager to succeed Hugo Bendels. Whitted claims most big league managers have killed gast, in Venice, Cal., where a benefit recently was given for him.
